ODE TO DEITY. No. 1.

O Thou Eternal One

Words by DERZHAVIN
Andante.

INTRODUCTION

Music by O. Z. HANISH,

The musical score is written for piano and features three systems of staves. Each system consists of a treble clef staff with chords and a bass clef staff with a melodic line. The first system includes a piano (p) dynamic marking and a pedal point (Ped.) in the bass. The second system includes a piano (p) dynamic marking, a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic marking, and a pedal point (Ped.) in the bass. The third system includes a forte (f) dynamic marking and a pedal point (Ped.) in the bass. The score is marked with asterisks (*) and a double bar line with a repeat sign (||) to indicate sections. The tempo is marked as Andante.

The second system of the musical score continues the composition. It includes two vocal staves and a piano accompaniment. The vocal melody continues with quarter notes D5, E5, and F5. The piano accompaniment maintains its rhythmic pattern. Dynamic markings include a mezzo-forte (mf) marking and a piano (p) marking. The system concludes with a double bar line.

O Thou Eternal One

The first system of the musical score consists of four staves. The top staff is a single melodic line in G major (one sharp) with a treble clef. The second staff is a bass line in G major with a bass clef. The third and fourth staves form a piano accompaniment in G major, with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more complex bass line in the left hand. The lyrics 'ings! Might-y One! Whom none can com-pre-hend and none ex-' are positioned below the second staff.

1. O Maz-da, source of life and light, A riv-er deep and wide,
 2. Guard Thou our lives, aid the oppressed, As ev-er in the past,
 3. The clouds that he re-flect-ed there Shall pass a-way at dawn,
 4. In bus-y mart, on rest-less main, We'll fondly turn to Thee,

A nev-er-fail-ing pow'r and might, An ev-er-puls-ing tide;
 In North or South, in East or West, Where'er our lot be cast;
 And glo-rious noon-tide rec-ord bear, Of pro-gress and re-nown;
 In na-ture's peaceful, sheltered lane, In spir-it still with Thee;

As Saint and Sage of old-en days, To Thee their prais-es clear,
 Our life, a riv-er, nev-er lost, Each bar a tie that binds,
 For now at last the pur-pose clear, The flag of peace un-furled,
 While we in haste press on-ward still To carve a name and fame,

So we to Thy dear name do raise Our in-vo-ca-tion here.
 The sur-face on-ly tem-pest-tossed By for-tune's varying winds.
 The torch of wis-dom light-ed here En-light-ens all the world.
 Each promise read-y to ful-fill In Thy most ho-ly name.

Hail to Thee

O. Z. HANSEN.

Hail to thee, our ab-sent brother, Hail, to thee, our sis-ter, dear;

The first system of musical notation for the song 'Hail to Thee'. It consists of a treble and bass staff in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the staff.

We remember thee at the hour of pray'r, We remember thee in love;

The second system of musical notation. The melody continues in the treble staff, with some notes beamed together. The bass staff continues the accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the staff.

We remember thee at day-time, We remember thee at night,

The third system of musical notation. The melody continues in the treble staff. The bass staff continues the accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the staff.

While the earth is in her slumber We bestow our hail to thee.

The fourth system of musical notation. The melody concludes in the treble staff with a final chord. The bass staff continues the accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the staff.

NOTE.—For hail substitute peace, health, joy, wealth, etc.

O. Z. HANSEN

1. Have cour-age! keep good cheer! Our long - est time is brief,
2. And lo! all hearts will bring Love, mak - ing glad your days;

The first system of music consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 4/4 time signature. It contains a melody of eighth and quarter notes. The bass staff begins with a bass clef and contains a bass line of eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics are written below the staves, with the first line corresponding to the treble staff and the second line to the bass staff.

To those who hold you dear Bring not, bring not more grief;
And bless - ings un - told spring All round a - bout your ways;

The second system of music continues the melody and bass line from the first system. The treble staff has a treble clef, one flat, and a 4/4 time signature. The bass staff has a bass clef. The lyrics are written below the staves.

Stand in the sun-shine sweet, And treas - ure ev - 'ry ray,

As God Will

REFRAIN.

I will not mur-mur at the sor-row That on-ly

lon-ger-lived would be, The end may come, and that to-mor-row,

When God has wrought His will in me; And so I whis-per,

"As God will," And trusting to the end hold still, And so I whis-per, "As God will," And trust-ing to the end, hold still.

To-Morrow

W. S. WHITACRE.

O. Z. HAYNIE.

p. Larghetto.

1. Fret not thy-self for the mor-row, The mor-row will
 2. To-day is the time for en-dear-or, The on-ly care for its own, 'Tis fool-ish and vain to time that's our own, If we use it a-right there will bor-row Its care and la-bor and sor-row nev-er, Be trou-ble to-mor-row, but ev-

row, There's e-nough in to-day a-lone.
 er A day from which trou-ble has flown.

Our Master's Message

O. Z. H.

O. Z. HANSEN,

1. Art thou search-ing, art thou seek-ing To re-lieve thy lot?
2. "No, not my will, no not my faith Heals," saith One to me;
3. Faith is sub-stance and as-sur-ance Of the things un-seen;
4. Faith in God and - faith in sci-ence Shall dis-ease ar-rest.
5. By thy faith and trust thou shalt be Healed from all dis-ease.
6. Not de-ni-ale, not de-mand-ing Shall our sins for-give,
7. Not to me, nor un-to oth-ers Give thy praise or word,
8. "All the sins thou hast com-mit-ted I re-mem-ber not;

1. On-ly one way leade to heal-ing—Trust in God!
2. "But thy own will and thy own faith Heal-eth thee."
3. Be ye trust-ing. God is call-ing, Be thou clean!
4. Cease thy wor-ry, cease la-ment-ing, Be at rest.
5. Hold thy thought and make thy statement, Be at ease.
6. But con-fes-sion, true pro-fes-sion, Thought, word, deed.
7. All the hon-or still be-long-eth To thy Lord.
8. All that's past shall be for-giv-en," Saith thy God.

The musical score for 'Our Master's Message' is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It features a treble and bass staff. The melody is marked with dynamics: f (forte) at the beginning, dim. (diminuendo) in the middle, and sf p (sforzando piano) towards the end. The lyrics are placed below the treble staff.

Be Strong

SIDNEY A. BRAD.

O. Z. HANSEN.

1. Be strong! We are not here to play, to dream, to drift,
 2. Be strong! Say not, "The days are evil; who's to blame?"
 3. Be strong! It mat-ters not how deep in-trenched the wrong,

We have hard work to do and loads to lift;
 And fold the hands and ac-qui-escence, O shame!
 How hard this bat-tle goes, the day how long;

Shun not the strug-gle, face it, 'Tis God's gift.
 Stand up, speak out, and brave-ly, In God's name.
 Faint not, but fight on! To-mor-row comes the song.

O. Z. HANSEN

1. É-ter-nal Life, I bow Thy breath, The tho'ts Divine I laud, I bless,
 2. From out my soul's great deep I draw God's love, His wisdom and His law;
 3. Come, hush of me, inspire, respire, Till cold is warmth, and ice is fire,

The Cosmic Breath

It makes me pure and re-cog-nize The hid-den pow'r that in me lies.
 Dark is no more, but brilliant light, That penetrates each depth and height.
 Till life knows life equation sure, Soul freed, mind fixed, and a spirit pure.

5. Thou shalt be a cup of wa-ter To the parched and burn-ing lips,
6. Thou shalt be what thou shalt not be, All our highest wish can crave,

In the pre-sence of thy beau-ty, As we lis-ten to thy word.
 Free from all earth's doubt and pas-sion, From thy world, O wisdom brought.
 Whole-'tis giv-en not in frag-ments, For the guid-ance of our youth.
 On-ly there thy strength and beau-ty On the wings of light doth rise.
 Thou shalt be the change-less nec-tar To the soul that comes and slips.
 All of faith and hope and pow-er Sent to earth man's soul to save.

 3. Bread of Life, well re-com-mended, Staff of Life thou art my meat,

By command thou shalt be broken To in-still thy Life in mine.
 That we may not be mis-ta-ken, God spoke; To thee it be meat.
 Con-scious life must not be end ed, Fowls of air, nor beasts that creep.

Bread of Life, of thee have spoken, Sav-ors, serv-ants, saints di-vine,
 Hid-den patha must be for ask-en, Soul's own product shall be meat.
 To them all has been com-manded, Fructs, herbs, seeds shall be their meat.

MARIE MAYWILDE MACKENFRAU.

God is my life, God is my strength, God is my might,
Gott ist mein Le-ben, Er mei-ne Stär-ke, Er all mein We-ben,

The first system of musical notation for 'God. Gott' consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff has a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C). The melody is written in a simple, hymn-like style. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

God is my works. God is my all, God is my all.
Er mei-ne Wer-ke, Er all mein Glück, Er all mein Glück.

The second system of musical notation continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. It maintains the same key signature and time signature, with the treble staff carrying the vocal line and the bass staff providing the accompaniment.

Glory to God

VADAN LINDGAY.

Glo - ry to God in the High - est, Peace be on

The first system of musical notation for 'Glory to God' features a treble and bass staff. The key signature has changed to two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature remains common time (C). The melody in the treble staff is more active than in the previous hymns, with eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass staff accompaniment uses chords and moving lines.

Earth and good will to man. A - - - men.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. The treble staff melody includes a long, sustained note (a half note) on the word 'men', which is followed by a dotted line indicating a continuation of the sound. The bass staff accompaniment consists of steady chords.

p Adagio.

1. In all of our life's moods of feeling, Of sorrow, distress and unrest,
2. In moments of illness and weakness, When flesh seemeth burdened with care,
3. When troubled and tossed by temptation Which threatens our soul to engulf,
4. So Christ is our All ver-y tru-ly, Our Hope and our Life and our Peace,

Christ, Lord is our Anchor, our Leader, Inspiring with unsalt'ring trust.
Then Christ is our life in abundance, His name brings the promised relief.
While Spirit is strong but the flesh weak, How blessed to know Christ our peace.
His name breatheth excellent sweetness, All potent with joy-giving life.

The cross let be raised then in triumph, For Christ is and must be in all,

In true love our loy-al-ty mak-eth Christ King and Lord of all.

 3. Maz-daz-nan, hold your banner high, Af-flict-ion, fear and pain de-fy,
 4. From pole to pole men earn-est pray, To point to them the bet-ter way,
 5. Come ral-ly round the banner high, And join with us the bat-tle cry,
 6. Maz-daz-nan brings a message dear, To ev-ry mind and soul made clear.

1. Maz-daz-nan comes to set thee free Who will its brave proclaimers be?
 2. Maz-daz-nan is our worker's fort, Maz-daz-nan shall the troth re-port.
 3. Maz-daz-nan for the highest aims, And amnesty from sin proclaims.
 4. Maz-daz-nan with the flaming sword, Points out to men the living word.
 5. Maz-daz-nan puts an end to night, All our past wrongs now be made right.
 6. Maz-daz-nan thar-et the world shall ring, To ev-'ry home new hope does bring.

Mazdaznan Knows

O. Z. HANISH

1: Maz-daz-nan knows no ri-val-ry, It is the fount of lib-er-ty;
 2: Maz-daz-nan knows no en-e-nuy, It knows the bonds of lib-er-ty;
 3: Maz-daz-nan brings in-tel-li-gence, By showing, how by ab-sti-nence,

Where col-or, caste or creed may meet And learn of wisdom's greatest feat,
 What strangely acts, shows ar-ro-gance. Is au-per-sti-tion, ig-no-rance.
 Man may conceive the per-fect way To reach the goal without de-lay.

There is no need of jeal-ons-y, Pro-fes-sion-al or oth-er-wise,
 En-light-ened ones can clear-ly see That dark-ness, strug-gling to-wards light,
 Maz-daz-nan cures all sin and ills, The heart and mind with wisdom fills,

Maz-daz-nan is the ar-go-ay, For ways most perfect to de-vise
 To set its high-er na-ture free, Must la-bor hard and bravely fight.
 While in the rattle on earth's plane, It fortune brings, success and fame.

The Perfect Name

O. Z. HANSEN.

March tempo.

1. Max-daz-nan now has brought to earth A message full of joy and mirth,
 2. Not a new creed, but a new way That leads from night to sun-clothed day,
 3. Not a new God, but a new name Which thou shalt nev-er take in vain,

Not a new thought, but a new theme, For truth, the all embracing thought.
 A way that makes dark passage clear, En-ables man the goal to reach.
 For He has spok-en strong and clear, "Yea, I shall give them a new name."

Max-daz-nan destined is to fame, For freedom, love and peace it brought.
 O learn Max-daz-nan to re-vere, For knowledge, wisdom it shall teach.
 It is Max-daz-nan, keep it dear, Be-hold! Max-daz nan leads to fame.

CHORUS.

Max-daz nan is that per-fect name, all else is but pre-tence and claim.

The Perfect Name

Oh! shout it throughout all the land; Max-daz-nan means God's Mas-ter-hand,

Max-daz-nan stands for Master-thought, That through-out a-ges wonders wrought.

I Am Walking in the Light

Hindu Melody.

1 am walk-ing in the light, in the light, in the light,

The first system of music consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff has a key signature of two flats (Bb, Eb) and a 4/4 time signature. It contains a melody with eighth and quarter notes, and three measures marked with an accent (^). The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

I am walk-ing in the light, In the light of God.

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The treble staff melody has three measures marked with an accent (^). The bass staff accompaniment continues with a steady harmonic support.

In the light, in the light, In the light, in the light,

The third system features a more active treble staff melody with eighth notes and four measures marked with an accent (^). The bass staff accompaniment remains consistent.

In the light, in the light, In the light of God.

The fourth system concludes the piece. The treble staff melody has three measures marked with an accent (^) and ends with a double bar line. The bass staff accompaniment also concludes with a double bar line.

Moderato.

1. A creedless love that knows no clan, No caste, no class, no cult but man,
2. We think man climbs an endless slope Tow'rd far-seen table-lands of hope.
3. Too long our music hungering needs Have heard the iron clash of creeds;

That deems to-day and now and here Are voice and vision of the seer,
That he thro' filth and shame of sin Still seeks the God who speaks within;
The creedless love that knows no clan, No caste, no class, no cult but man,

That thro' this lift-ed hu-man elod The in-flow of the breath of God
That all the years since time began Work the e-ter-nal Rise of Man,
Shall onward move as moves the sun, And blend all hearts and faiths in one;

Still sheds its a-po-s-to-l-ic pow'rs, Each faith, such hope, such love be ours.
And all the days that time shall see Tend tow'rd the Eden yet to be.
Such love with all its quick'n'g pow'rs, Such love to God and man be ours.

 4. To thy Lord be vow-ing, While thy face is bow-ing To the north.

CHORUS

Not a bet-ter sta-tion, No, not ed-u-ca-tion, Do we need.

But to be re-mind-ed That we should be stand-ing On our feet.

The Poet and Waterlily

W. A. BARBOCK

Arr. by O. Z. HANISH.

1. O flow'r on the breast of the riv-er, O marvel of bloom and grace;
2. Nay, nay, I fell not from heaven, None gave me my saintly white;

Did you fall straight down from heaven, Out of the sweet-est place?
It slowly grew in the blackness, Down in the draar-y night,

You are white as the tho't of an angel, Your heart is steep'd in the ann;
From the ooze of the si-lent riv-er I won my glo-ry and grace.

Did you grow in the gold-en cat-y, My pure and ra-diant one.
White souls fall not, O my Po-et, They rise to the sweetest place.;

The Merry Sun For Me

O. Z. HANSEN.

Con spirito.

1. I love the mer-ry sun-shine, It makes the heart so gay;
2. I love the mer-ry sun-shine, I love the morn-ing hour
3. I love the mer-ry sun-shine, It fills my heart with cheer,

I love to hear the birds sing Their gladsome round-e-ay,
That marks the day's faint breaking, And greets each op'ning flow'r.
It lifts my soul from dark-ness And drives a-way all fear.

The wild-wood laughs at sad-ness, And stirs each bush and tree.
It charms the soul in sad-ness, It sets the spir-it free.
To life it adds more brightness That my dim eyes may see.

CHORUS

The sun-shine is all glad-ness, The mer-ry sun for me;

Watch Thy Footsteps

CONSTANCE C. HILTON.

O. E. HANSEN.

1. Watch thy footsteps day by day, That you'll wan-der not a-stray;
 2. Keep from sins with trembling fear, Fill thy heart with praise and cheer;
 3. Near-er, near-er we must be To our Sav-iour, near'r to Thee;

List-en to the voice within That you'll not be led to sin
Glo-ri-ty thy Saviour's name, Spread His word, His glo-rious fame.
 From Thy face we must not turn, Or our heart with sins must burn

Blest be the Heart

Arr. by O. E. HANISH

1. What are an - oth - er's fault to me, I'm not a vul-ture's bill,
2. It is e-nough for me to know, I've fol - lies of my own,
3. Blest be the tongue that speaks no ill, Whose words are always true,
4. Blest be the ears that will not hear Do-trac-tion's en-vious tale,

1. To pick at ev - 'ry flaw I see, And make it wid - er still.
2. And on my heart the care be-stow, And let my friends a-lone.
3. That keep the law of kind-ness still, What-ev - er oth - ers do.
4. 'Tis on - ly through the list'-ning ear, The false hood can pre-vail.

CHORUS.

Blest be the heart that knows no guile, That feels no wish un-kind,

For-get-ting pro - vo - ca - tions, while good deeds are kept in mind.

Be Careful What You Say

S. W. STRAUB.

1. In speaking of an-oth-er's faults, Pray, don't for-get your own;
 2. We have no right to judge a man Un-till he's fair-ly tried;
 3. Then let us all when we commence To slan-der friend or foe,

Re-mem-ber those in homes of glass Should seldom throw a stone.
 Should we not like his com-pa-ny, We know the world is wide.
 Think of the harm one word may do To those we lit-tle know.

If we have noth-ing else to do But talk of those who sin,
 Some may have faults—and who has not, The old as well as young;
 Re-mem-ber ours-es sometimes, like Our chickens, "roost at home."

'Tis bet-ter we commence at home, And from that point be gin.
 Per-haps we may, for ought we know, Have Elf-ty to their one.
 Don't speak of oth-ers' faults un-till We have none of our own.

And when all that seemeth dear, Is from us swept far and near;

Lead our souls by Thy bright ray Un-to realms of last-ing day,
Shine as dark-er grows the night, More we need of Thy great light,

Guide us then by Thy great light, And Thy grace, Thy love and might.
So that we may look on Thee, See Thy face e-ter-nal-ly.

This block contains the third line of musical notation, concluding the first system. The melody ends with a final note, and the lyrics are 'ri - ver, where loved ones are wait - ing for me.'

. Rhythmic Breathing Melody

This block contains the first line of musical notation for the 'Rhythmic Breathing Melody' section. It features a treble and bass staff in common time. The melody is characterized by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, creating a rhythmic pattern.

This block contains the second line of musical notation for the 'Rhythmic Breathing Melody' section. The melody continues with a similar rhythmic pattern, featuring eighth and sixteenth notes.

Dare to be a Daniel

Dare to be a Dan - iel, Dare to stand a - lone;

This system features a treble and bass staff in 4/4 time. The melody in the treble staff consists of eighth and quarter notes, while the bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment with quarter notes.

Dare to have a purpose true, And dare to make it known.

This system continues the melody and accompaniment. The treble staff includes a rit. (ritardando) marking above the final measure. The bass staff also has a rit. marking below the final measure.

CHORUS a tempo

Dare to be a Dan - iel, Dare to stand a - lone;

The chorus begins with the same melody and accompaniment as the first system, maintaining the 4/4 time signature.

Dare to have a purpose true, And dare to make it known.

This system concludes the chorus with the same musical notation as the previous system, including rit. markings in both staves.

Abide with Me

A - bide with me, fast falls the ev - en - tide;

The first system of musical notation for the song 'Abide with Me'. It consists of a treble and a bass staff joined by a brace on the left. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass line is in the bass staff. The lyrics 'A - bide with me, fast falls the ev - en - tide;' are centered under the treble staff.

The dark-ness deep - ens, Lord with me a - bide!

The second system of musical notation. It continues the melody and bass line from the first system. The lyrics 'The dark-ness deep - ens, Lord with me a - bide!' are centered under the treble staff.

When oth - er help - ers fail, and com - forts flee,

The third system of musical notation. It continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics 'When oth - er help - ers fail, and com - forts flee,' are centered under the treble staff.

Help of the help-less, O, a - bide with me.

The fourth system of musical notation, which concludes the piece with a double bar line. The lyrics 'Help of the help-less, O, a - bide with me.' are centered under the treble staff.

O, How Joyful

O.Z. HANISH

O, how joyful, O, how happy, That on this day we meet again, That on this day we meet a gain, Into the eyes of one another gazing, Our hearts with joy are over-flowing O what great luck, a master stroke, That on this day we meet a - gain, That on this day we meet a - gain.

Ainyahita's Prayer

| 2. Thou who art the lead to all,
Quickening this terrestrial ball,
Giving life to all that sleep,
Saviour dear to all who fall. | 4. Nothing can I ask of Thee,
As Thy Love flows e'en for me;
Earth is full of milk and food,
Making life so full and free. |
| 3. In this grand celestial space,
Where the planets vie and race,
Thou hast called me from the deep,
Just to bask in light and grace. | 5. Marda, hear my humble cry,
Recognise my sob and sigh;
But for Thee my heart shall beat,
Never let sweet memory die. |

6. Even I shall in this birth,
Evermore redeem the Earth;
Unto Thee a dwelling-place,
To Associate a hearth.

Nearer My God To Thee

Dr J. B. DYKES

- 1 NEARER, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!
E'en though it be a cross
That raiseth me,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!
- 2 Though, like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone,
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!
- 3 There let the way appear
Steps unto heaven,
All that Thou send'st to me
In mercy given,

Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

- 4 Then, with my waking thoughts
Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise,
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!
- 5 Or if on joyful wing
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upwards I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

Invocations

by

Dr. Otoman Zar-Adusht Ha'nish

Invocation

I

O Bliss Divine, Thou that roamest throughout Zarvan Akarana,

Essence of Life,
Bearer of Light,

Who enkindlest the fire of Love and nourishest
Wisdom in the hearts of all mankind,

Thou alone art the goal,
Thy name be ever intoned

May Thy Light forever manifest through the realms of existence,

As it is real within the bosom of Thy incomprehensible centre,

The Will of Thy Being shall ever arise within our thought,

That our actions may ever conform to Thy design.

We are pleased to partake of the bread of heaven
daily,

And our desires shall ever be concentrated upon the grandeur of self-reliance

Against darkness let the light of Thy divine consciousness reflect, that we may feel its presence within our being,

For Thy promise is, that upon paths of delight and pleasure we shall wander throughout all life cycles

Unto Thee we acknowledge power, glory, radiance, beauty, sublimity, and life divine, even unto Eternity

Thus be it in the name of Om and Na
And unto this end let all things prosper.

Inbocation

II

Thou Holy One, Who art the centre of my very being,
Who penetrates the very essence of my composite existence,

I adore Thee. .

I acknowledge Tby divine presence witbin me,
Breathe, O breathe into me the Breath of Life,
That I may realize the living soul of my being,
And recognize the powers latent within the bosom of my deepest thought.

With every step may I learn to understand myself,

And with every indrawn breath recognize the perfection of individuality.

With every outgoing breath, I shall become purer, until I be like the presence of light divine;

Yea, even like the sun that shines in the heavens of the universe sublime.

I am in nature—and to be harmonious with it, and to realize the grandeur of Oneness in all things shall be my innermost desire.

Come peace and understanding, and shed light upon my path,

That I may no longer err in darkness,
But forever live in the light of understanding and truth.

Thus be it in the name of the Everlasting.
And unto this end let all things prosper.

Invocation

III

O Ineffable, Thou realm of thought, word and deed; substance of all, in all and through all,
Everacting, luminous radiance Divine which giveth expression to the soul's desire, which hath no depth nor height,

Immeasurable Perfection,

Give grace, give power, give peace.

Life Eternal, who but a soul awakening comprehends Thee !

Human language is too weak, too poor, to express
Thy magnificent greatness

Not words, but acts and deeds of consciousness can give expression of the presence of Thy Divine Being.

The attributes of divinity are ever before us in the manifestation of Thy being, and virtues, the garments of the soul, ever lead us through the Valley of Presentation.

Let the gentle spirit now emanating from thought
Divine lead henceforth our actions into paths of perfection.

Let usefulness be our glory, good deeds our praise, justice our honour, throughout all Life Cycles.

Be it so. And unto this end let all things prosper.

Invocation

IV

Oh, Nameless One, Who alone art supreme and an object of adoration and praise, be Thou ever consciously near us.

Master Infinite, it is Thou Who hast ordained that as the day succeeds the night, one tide a tide, and race a race, through eternity, so man will manifest on the endless planes of progression.

As he casts off this collective form, which will be consumed by the virtues of its own elements, so will the spirit phenomenon be disintegrated by its own elements; and with each new manifestation will retain its former experiences.

All individual is eternal,

And the experiences of former manifestations become the companions to the latter through all the planes of consciousness,

While the career of the life of the individual shall determine its spiritual affiliations;

For if on an inferior plane, then shall its companions be likened unto beasts and reptiles.

All life has its spiritual counterpart in the invisible. Therefore, not only has man immortal nature, but likewise the lower order of animal existence.

Hence the universal law : "Thou shalt not kill,"

And they are the true children of Ah-Brahm who transgress not this divine institution.

So be it. And unto this end let all things prosper.

Invocation

V

God alone is my teacher,
For no one shall take upon himself the honour
of being a teacher.
Yea, even my shepherd is He, the Father of all things, animate and inanimate.
Honour be to Thee, inexhaustible Majesty !
Conscious of Thee as the dwelling place and the habitation of manifestation, I shall no longer be in want
Yea, Thou makest me lie down in green pastures of superabundance.
Thou leadest me in spirit of truth beside the still waters of rejuvenation,
Even my soul, wounded by the accumulated superstitions, Thou restorest to its state of felicity.
For Thy name's sake, and the sake of Thy promises, Thou leadest me on into paths of righteousness
Yea, and though I tear myself loose from Thy divine presence
And walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I need fear no evil, for Thou wilt follow me and
be ever near me;
Thy rod of the law of application of justice, and
Thy staff of grace are comfort unto me.

Even in the presence of misunderstanding and unworthiness

Thou art kind to spread a table before me
And bringest forth an abundance of delicious vegetation and growth.

With the oil of Wisdom Thou anointest my head
that I might comprehend the inexhaustible,
the Celestial.

My cup runneth over with the amazing splendour of Thy might.

Goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days
of my life.

I am not homeless, for in the house of my Lord
I shall dwell forever.

And to His dominion there is no end. Be it so.
And to this end let all things prosper.

Invocation

VI

O, Being Infinite, Thou Who dwellest within the innermost of our being,

Evolve through the states of consciousness Thy divine light before our vision; for darkness, wrongs, agony, misconception, pain and sorrow surround us, where we feel not the eternal right of Thy divine wisdom.

Thou shinest in the skies like an everlasting sun sublime,

Removing the mists that cloud our eyes and givest us glimpses of that veiled glory, the sweet paradise we would attain

Despite our narrowness and bigotry, our greed and sensuality, our selfishness and strife, we feel in our inmost soul rays of the truth divine,

And attain to life eternal by the absolution from all materiality through our obedience to that law divine which is the guide unto ourself.

We acknowledge that our wayward feet only too often were set in paths of blood

That we have denied the truth, have forgotten the precepts of nature and nature's God, yet it was in moments of forgetfulness, in our anxiety, our struggle to win

To reach out into the paths of gratification, because of our inability to understand the beauties of life

It is now past, and according to the promises of justice, "Thy sins shall be remembered no more."

We may enjoy the presence of divine consciousness and wander upon the upward paths of right conduct.

O, Thought Sublime,

Breathe upon this mind of mine that I may ever inhale the sweet perfume of the saviour liberty, the life of men.

It breaks the bonds of captives' chains; it loosens the fetters of the brain, and sets the higher nature free,

And my soul shall on this bright morn yet conceive perfect freedom in all things.

Give power, sweet sounds of angels from the heights of the throne sublime, to break away from cruel dogmas and cold creeds, from unjust laws and authoritative institutions;

Thus illuminating the world with the beautiful gospel of liberty.

The individualized religion of humanity, science and art unitized, and philosophy and sociology harmonized;

Filling all with love, not hatred; with peace, not strife; with happiness, not wealth.

Be it so. And to this end let all things prosper.

Invocation

VII

I behold, O Tbought Divine, within Thy frame, all beings and things expressed of every kind.

I see Thee manifested upon all sides, of infinite forms.

Even in Me

I see Thee crowned with a diadem of dazzling
splendour difficult to behold,

Shining in every direction with light inmeasur-
able like the burning fire of the glowing sun,

And were it not for the variation in manifestation,
nothing could exist in the presence of Thy involution.

Thou art the supreme, inexhaustible being, the end of endeavour and struggle, inconceivable, indestructible, changeless,

The Supreme of the universe, the never-failing guardian of man, who is law eternal unto himself.

Yea, I esteem Thee

The world is filled with fear at seeing Thee thus marvellously constructed,

And falls before Thee into destructibility by virtue of its own terror.

Of the assemblage of the gods and those sitting in authority, when fear befalleth them they flee to Thee for refuge.

And with joined hands sing forth Thy praises
while the hosts of the great sages, saints,
prophets, and saviours

Hail Thee for mercy for their fellow beings and glorify Thee with most excellent hymns.

Even the redeemers of nations, tongues and tribes, all stand in awe, gazing upon Thy majesty, and are amazed.

Yet unto me Thou revealest Thy divine presence in simplicity, and also revealest the grandest of all lessons,

That I am one with Thee.

O, Thought Divine, Thought Ineffable, Thought
Incomprehensible,

In Thee I live and breathe and dwell, even to Thy throne of divinity I reach, for in Thy presence who am I but Thee?

Thus be it.

And unto this end let all things prosper.

Invocation

VIII

Thou Who alone art time matured, with all the senses of the world manifested,

I behold Thy wondrous works.

In my feebleness there are moments when I cannot comprehend Thy works,

And because of limitation in the memories of expressions,

I feel as if seeking for Thee, the Primeval One,
Thinking myself in this ocean of drifting idealities
as being lost

But how could I be lost when everything that is manifests itself through the Primeval One?

Sought by the energies that have not yet found their innermost consciousness of reality,

But are still drifting about in the determination of their centre,

Thou involvest and swallowest all these creatures
from every side,

Licking them, as it were, with Thy flaming lips
And again Thou evolvest and formest simultaneously
all the universe with Thy splendour.

As the rapid streams of full-flowing rivers roll
on to meet the ocean,

As the troops of insects, carried away by strong impulses, find death in the fire,

Even so do all beings in the realm of existence with swelling force pour into Thy Presence for the destruction of their personalities,

Beholding not that Thou art Life

Reveal daily unto my sense-condition Thy Presence Supreme,
That I may even in this abode recognize the efficacy of sacrifice,
And learn even from the lily of the field, which complains not when the ranker growths of vegetation spring up and choke it;
No, but willingly giving up its beauty and fragrance,
Thereby causing the inferior to yield in turn unto another,
And forever beautifying and elevating the vegetable kingdom by the gift of itself.
Thus in all life with the unsightly we are to yield to the beautiful;
The sensuous takes on the spiritual, the useless becomes useful,
The unreal reveals the real, and the higher nature guides the lower.
That the two may ever recognize harmony in the oneness of all variation;
So will peace come to all souls.
From the tides of the ocean, forever following each other with violence,
And lashing themselves to pieces upon the shores of time,
I realize this beautiful lesson of life, that in like manner
Our material tide of greed and avarice,
Ever intending to destroy the very foundation of our nature,

Will dash into fragments before our higher thoughts and aspirations.

But as the ocean after a tempest is blessed with
a calm,

So unto each soul after the storm of ignorance,
When purified through the water, fire, and blood
of time,

There follows the blessing of peace in the garment of the sun-clothed day,

To which no mortal tongue can give expression.

And that calm is stronger than the tempest,

That peace mightier than the sword,

While Love, the highest of attributes, is the breath of things.

May Thy dominion come, oh, sweet hour of Peace,

For in Thee dwells Bliss Absolute Be it so.

And unto this end let all things prosper

Invocation

IX

Breathe out, Breathe out, O Saviour of Liberty,
The beautiful gospel of liberty upon all minds,
That with understanding we may breathe in intelligence born without fear, nursed without favour,

A free distributor of knowledge to all men.

At times that sense of duality still clings to my form as if a reality.

Until the sun rises within my soul and sheds its rays gorgeously into my deluded manifestation, Revealing repeatedly, like the sunbeams unto the dawn,

That the light exists everlastingly,

That I am one in Thee and Thou in me—inseparable.

Rise, yea, rise to the very zenith of understanding,

That humanity may awaken to a fuller conception of what it means to be mentally and physically free,

To bring forth from out of our innermost the Saviour of Liberty,

Born again for man, conceived by the Virgin of pure mind and undefiled,

To proclaim the message of a country free.

And may that blessed name of Liberty

Take flight through the world upon that celestial morn

And lead us to our birthright, which gives a heritage to all,

As the hour of midnight, the end of oppression,
draws near,

May I be ready to carefully collect every crumb
of past uselessness

And whirl them into the furnace of the mind,

And consume them by the fire that burns by love divine. Standing alone upon my feet, it dawns upon me, that in looking backward,

I must take heed of the past, and remember it no more,

For it holds nothing for me

But the mouldering of dead bones of untimely remembrances

I am to welcome the day of Liberty

And give praise each day after the manner of the All Loving.

And thus through life express the purpose of manifestation,

Recognizing the rights of my brother,

Who like unto myself is the reflection of the Self-same Radiance.

No longer shall I hide my light of understanding
under a bushel,

But fearlessly shed broadcast the ideas of justice

To brighten the paths of others,

Recognizing their rights to do the same,

That their lamps that yet burn dimly may be turned higher,

And give praise and glory unto Thee Who illuminates the world of worlds.

Already the message of this gospel is being felt,
as it moves upon the depths of ignorance and oppression,

And it is being breathed by all that breathe the breath of life,

Permeating the veins of all with hope, truth,
peace,

Until Love shall reign.

Thus Liberty alone will be the incentive, leading the intellectual armies of love, which are the only true missionaries of the world born of good endeavour.

* Hasten the day, reveal the hour, I come to Thee.

Be it so.

And unto this end let all things prosper.

Invocation

X

Hallowed be Thy name, O Spirit of Love,
The greatest of all sacred attributes,
Who but a soul awakening to realms of consciousness can understand Thee?

For with Thee comes the offering up of the useless or dead

Unto the useful or the living.

In the same manner as the night is offered up unto the day

And in turn the day unto the night,
The summer unto the winter and the winter unto
the summer,

As the wind lifts itself from one sphere unto another, yet the sphere whence it came misses it not,

For it has gone forth as thoughts to return unto me in new garments of purity,

And, always remembering the grand opportunities
and the possibilities,

Peace shall dwell within the doors of him who loves liberty.

Listen, O my soul, to the voice of the three holy children—Thought, Word, and Deed—that speaks in tones of unmistakable certainty.

Remember the fatherless, the widowed, the afflicted, the downtrodden, the outcasts, the oppressed, the lowly, the poor and those in wealth; they have the same right to life as thou hast,

As all mankind are of equal value when they breathe for the first time on earth, and are of like value when they breathe out their last breath into domains of dissolution.

From the first to the last, the moments of life belong to him who conceals the preceding existences, and reveals the future as in a cloud, A cloud which may be lifted even in time being by the will of him who follows in the paths that eventually lead to self-illumination.

Thus let thy accumulated wealth which has centred before thee,

Conditionally and unconditionally,

Flow from thy hands as from the bountiful river of plenty,

Giving not from thine own or thyself,

But from that great cause from which thou didst receive.

Thy deeds of impartiality, justice and love will not be rewarded unto thee in the specie of any earthly realm, but in the consciousness of that peace which is priceless and above all human valuation. As spirit, soul and body are one and the same to the Holy One, declaring the beginning and ending of all things, always distributing through the law of harmony with the same impartial hands its most holy gifts, so are all that breathe but one and the same in the sight of him whose God is Love, and who-soever abideth in that truth abideth in God and God in him, yea, even unto life everlasting, and to His dominion there is no end. Each season brings forth its kind each day, and utters its own speech without the shadow of a desire for reward. Let this be the great lesson of the dual sense of existence, first manifesting universal selfishness—everything existing for itself in its drifting condition of yet unborn elements—until it emerges into the spirit of universal love, and by virtue of its unified harmony brings forth into reality the divine child of universal progression. Hark! hark! O soul, to the voice of wisdom, and learn to master the great attributes of love, which is the breath that awakens to paths of eternal progression. Be it so.

Unto this end let all things prosper.

Invocation

XI

To whom shall I give thanks,
To whom shall I turn and look up,
When Bliss Absolute, when Light Immeasurable, is manifest in even me?

Then even I present through Myself the divine majesty, and am in thought not yet able to sense the Ego which is seated in the hearts of all mankind, and which is the beginning, the middle, and the end of all things!

My delusion has been dispersed by the revelation of the words that have been spoken by that still small voice inconceivable by sense alone,
And which has become plain for my soul's peace
as I unfold my nature to realms untold.

Faintly at first, then clearer and clearer my vision, my sight, until I behold the mystery of spirit, the inexhaustible majesty, the indescribable Self

Of the waters of Immortality I drink.

For long I had been thirsting after righteousness, and released from sorrow and pain, birth and death, poverty and old age, I glory in the embodiment of Self-Illumination, beyond even goodness, action, indifference.

By divine power my delusion is destroyed, and once more I am collected to that state which falls not,

Free from fear and doubt, I am firm, and will act according to the bidding of thought divine, which ever leads me, if I but follow. Be it so.

Unto thus end let all things prosper.

If I know then what my duty, if I know what I must do,
If I know then my position, know of things I must undo,
If I know what e'er befalls me, that I am steadfast to the end,
If I know that God, all loving, called me to Him
not in vain,
If I know wrong perpetrated, that I never will uphold,
If I know it must be righted—even though
through death I go,
If I know to me 'tis given, to consider all things
good,
If I know that any labour gives me ample livelihood,
If I know it an honour to 'produce, to work,
create,
If I know I owe my duty to myself, to love, not hate,
Then I shall gain satisfaction, then in peace on earth I'll dwell.
Then I'll hear the sweetest music, although but the ringing of a bell.
Then this world will grow sublimer, as I more closely to it draw.
Then I shall enjoy the pleasures that in dreams
my mind foresaw.
Then with eyes of open candour, even into suns
I'll look.
Then the universe before me shall be open like a book.
Then no sorrow, no more trials, nor temptations
I'll endure,
For the Old will all be vanished;
Heaven and Earth be always New.

Mazdaznan Confession

Mazdaznan Confession

I am a Mazdaznan who worships but one God, who is in me and I am in Him

I recognize all things throughout time and space with their diverse causations to be the result of Infinite Thought.

I acknowledge all things in matter to be the means to an end and not the end of the intelligence of God.

I realize matter to be the result of the operations of God's intelligence through substance co-existent with intelligence through Infinite Thought

I see in the countenance of man the male creative principle of God the Father, and in the woman I recognize the procreative female principle of God the Mother, and in the child I realize the perpetuative principle of destiny as Our Saviour through life, and add that these three images of God constitute the one Holy Family, reproduced and multiplied unto the greater Family of God and the Congregation of Gods with its endless chain of associations

I confess all the painful in matter to be the result of obstinacy on the part of substance through its processes of creations and evolutions, declining to yield to the peaceful operations of intelligence, thus introducing repulsion and impelling resistance.

I hold that all misunderstanding through the processes of creation and evolution is to be eliminated through the application of the higher intelligence, and that for this reason man must take up his work where the Spirit of God left it to our care.

I join the sentiments of our Blessed Mother as expressed through the ideal of Ainyahita, that I am 'here upon this earth to reclaim the earth, to turn the deserts into a paradise, a paradise most suitable unto God and His Associates to dwell therein (page 274).

I declare with Our Father of the pure faith through the reality of His Holy One, Zarathushtra, to stand for Good Thought, Good Word, Good Deed (page 275).

I agree with the saving power of the sonship of God through the incarnation of Christ in His command, Love thy neighbour as thyself (page 276).

I confide in the power of God. I shall set aside the useless and hold to the good. By the direction of perfect wisdom I shall choose the better part.

I deny the bonds of ancestral relation through sickness, sin and sorrow and sever myself from the prenatal influence of inherited tendencies, and herewith annul association with evil, error and illusion.

I shall no longer recall to my mind my offences nor the offences of forefathers, but exercise all the attributes and endowments of my birthright which come to me through the blessings of Mazda, without measure and abundantly, that I may thus verify the words of God, I shall remember their sins no more, and continue to bear in mind, What man soweth that he shall reap.

I shall follow the still small voice of Spynenta Mainyus in all its directions as coming from the realm of God, that by right living I may always demonstrate the full Truth through the health of the body and most ably perform my duty in a spirit of obedience; prove the power of mind through reason, logic, consideration, discrimination and deduction; have assurance of soul communion, comfort in spirit and the joys of life everlasting

I shall conduct my life in a way that the knife shall never need to be resorted to and herbal medicines shall never need to pass my lips, but in their stead holy spells through the formulas of invocations and prayers, exemplify the perfect life in God on earth

I shall ever laud creation and through the objects thereof worship the Lord God Mazda, and in all things of Nature, whether great or small the creature, behold the face of my Creator (page 276).

With mine eyes lifted beyond the mountain-tops and my heart fixed by the burning fire of love, I shall daily join in harmonious accord the prayer of the faithful worshippers; the prayer thrice spoken distinctly and with the presence of mind fixed upon the meaning of every word; the prayer that heals the body and assures tranquillity to the mind; the prayer that gives solace to the soul and whispers to the spirit Peace, the prayer breathed in tuneful measure with fervour, zeal, and the spirit of assurance, on one single expiration

May Mazda be rejoiced and His Associates continue to be victorious May obstinacy in this home be destroyed through the Virtue of Obedience, discord by Peace, advance by Generosity, vanity by Wisdom, false witness by Truthfulness, that the Immortals may long bless it with maintenance and friendly help; never the splendour of Prosperity or Progeny be distinguished, that we may shine with purity and see Thee face to face, O Mazda, attaining attributes leading unto worlds without end May Peace come to one and all, and may there be given to this country purity, dominion, profit, majesty and splendour This is my wish. Be it so.

Mazdaznan Affirmation

Mazdaznan Affirmation

I am all in One individually and one in All collectively;
I am present individually and omni-present collectively;
I am knowing individually and omni-scient collectively;
I am potent individually and omni-potent collectively;

All is of God and God is All! (page 277)

Individually I am in part, collectively I am the Whole;
Individually I am Di-verse, collectively I am Uni-verse;
Individually I am Limited, collectively I am Unlimited;
Individually I am Begotten, collectively I Beget

God is Love and God is Peace, (page 277)

God is Joy, God gives Release.

God is Health; that health is mine

God gives wealth, a wealth divine

All God's attributes surround me;

In that God I safely dwell;

God within, above, around me;

God is mine and all is well.

God is Breath, gives Life and Brightness;

God alone reveals the Right

All I know is God and Goodness,

In His Name I conquer Might

By Nature I am a Child of the Earth;

In Spirit I am an Associate of God,

I am the heir and joint heir of God;

And I have a portion and part in the Earth,

For the Earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof

I am at Peace, I am at Peace with God; (page 278)

I am at Peace with Man, I am at Peace with Self

I am a Mazdaznan and I recognize the Eternal Designs in Good Thought, Good Word, Good Deed.

Hu-mata, Hu-hata, Hu-varashta (p 278)

There is no end to matter, There is no end to Space (p 279)

There is but Good and Better, There is no end to Grace

Man is God's Revelation From out of Substance born,

And Life is Inspiration From out of God re-born

The Will of the Lord is the Law of Holiness

Mazdaean Prayers

REALIZATION (Spirit)

Open, O thou world-sustaining Sun, the entrance unto Truth, hidden by the rase of dazzling light.

Soften the radiation of thy illuminating splendours, that I may behold thy true being.

From the unreal lead me on to the real and unveil the magic illusions of the phenomenal worlds that I may see the path unto Realization. Amen.

CONTEMPLATION (Soul)

*Remember that in body thine a God is dwelling there;
Thy Temple from pollution free let it forever be.
Offend thou not thy God in thee, indulging in man's lusts;
Moreover if tormenting self thou groonest foolishly,
God has descended just to see the world with eyes of thine,
Then breathe on Him with senses pure, the Breath of sacrifice;*

It's He in thee, that sees, feels, thinks, and speaks by day and night,

Be thus in all thou dost see, feel, think, speak—divinely bright.

ASSURANCE (pp 39 and 253)

*Our Father who art in Peace, Intoned be Thy name;
Thy realm arise; Thy will incarnate upon the earth as in heaven.*

This day impart Thy word, And remember not our offences,

*That we may forget those who offend us. Through temptation guide us, And from error deliver us.
Be it so.*

RESTORATION (Physical)

By the five inflictions imposed upon Thee Thou most holy Zarathushtra, I invoke the leaves of healing from the realms of Mazda, To instil through the power of holy spells, Patience from Thy crown of thorns, Thy chastized body, The nailprints of Thy hands, The woundprints of Thy feet, And Thy bleeding side, That Purity may come to my heart and blood Unto perfect health of the skin and the body, And thus witness as a Zasta the Pure Religion of Mazda. Amen.

PRAYERS OF AINYAHITA

O Lord God Mazda, Thou art so great and yet so tender, so sublime and yet so humble, that I am put to shame in the presence of Thy boundless, compassionate love.

May my mind never entertain a thought to screen Thee from my sight; may never my lips utter words that veil Thee from my presence; may I never perform deeds that will cause Thee to be distant unto me May Thou ever be rejoiced and Thy associates continue to be victorious.

Permit me, even me, to add my humble sacrifice and a sacrifice worth being heard of, that through the performance of my duty in the spirit of Airyama I may be worthy of the association with the redeemers of the Covenant and be found trusting in all my agreements.

Be it so Amen

Thou most glorious Thought of Thought whom we adore as the Lord God Mazda, and leave it to Thee to determine the destiny of Infinite Designs, let the radiating rays of Thy divine splendour fall upon my composite being

May I, even I, just rising from out of the depths of creation, passing through the complications of evolutions too complex to fathom at an hour of awe and surprise, behold the frame that holds hidden Thy divine heart, and catch even if only a stray ray of Thy illumination.

May Thy light rays pass through my frame of inherited contradictions, to brighten every particle of my storm-tossed nature, that I may recognize and grasp Thy designs within the crude of Nature's phenomena, as well as in the finer forces of human kind

Each of the foregoing Formulas is to be spoken upon One Exhalation The first time in crescendo; second in forte; third in pianissimo Concentrate on the Breath and Word. Repeat daily.

Mazdaznan
Declaration of Freedom

Mazdaznan

Declaration of Freedom

1 Mazdaznan declares Universal Amnesty from Sickness, Sin and Sorrow, and announces Freedom of Choice through the Spirit of the Times, born of good behaviour, through our Saviour Liberty, in whom we trust, or—"As man thinketh so is he."

2 Mazdaznan declares the Source of Man to be the Ever-active Thought of Mazda in whom and through whom all things are equal.

3 Mazdaznan declares a just share of this world's goods to the extent of one's application of Individual Intelligence and the interest of timely investment during the Periods of Creation and the Process of Evolution measured by a Standard of Perfection, or—"What man soweth that he shall reap."

4 Mazdaznan declares that throughout Space moves the Ever-creative Thought of Mazda commanding Activity and Life, expressing the designs of intelligence through complex manifestations, verifying its limitlessness through the variety in matter.

5 Mazdaznan declares that the Existence of Matter, and its consequent Processes of Evolution through the four Dimensions of Space, depends upon our Mental Perception, recognizing in the Variation of Manifestation a Complex Whole, or—Monism in Panism and Panism in Polyism.

6 Mazdaznan declares to be the oldest and most comprehensive Educational System of Individual-Collective Thought, embracing as it does every Essential Truth embodied in the Aryan or Zend race, substantiated through Ainyahita, revealed through Zarathushtra, approved and declared by Jesus, founded upon Genesis, and borne out by the Science of Evolution, revealing unto man his origin, purpose and destiny; offering solutions to the most complex problems of life; pointing out man's final perfection, the means whereof are founded upon experience and observation as guided by Intuition and Reason, God and Nature, so ingeniously systematized that it commands respect, whether devised by man or revealed by God.

7 Mazdaznan is organized from Eternity unto Eternity, and in revelations and literary wealth offers surprises equal to those of the growth of the seasons, keeping abreast with the demands and requirements of time.

8 Mazdaznan declares to be "The Eternal Religion that stands behind all other religions," revealing the tie that binds finite man to his Infinite God—Mazda.

9 Mazdaznan declares that: Thought is the incentive unto Manifestation, and wherever conscious of its Presence in the Realm of Spirit, Soul, Mind and Body, equalizing matters of the Elementary, Mineral, Vegetable and Animal in sum and substance, there Life reveals its potentialities of the Past and points with the Magic Finger of Destiny unto Man's ceaseless Possibilities in the Future for the Perfection of all things.

10 Mazdaznan declares the Supreme Intelligence to be in All Forms of Manifestation, animate and inanimate, and realizes in the hearts of all mankind the Altar of the Eternal Flames of Love emanating the Life of Mazda, who is "a God of the Living, and not a God of the dead."

11 Mazdaznan declares that God has manifested, is now manifest, and will continue to manifest; but "is neither limited to the form of a man, nor the form of a woman," for Space and Time abound with endless formation.

12 Mazdaznan declares that

a) Religion, to be such, must prove by virtue of daily exercise the immanent knowledge, revealing the tie that binds finite Man to his Infinite God, the only Source of Life, Light and Love, unconditionally and freely imparted.

b) Philosophy, to be of any value to the individual, must deal with questions of vital importance, meeting the requirements of time, proven by facts undeniable and harmonious with the planetary and universal laws.

c) Science, to be of benefit to humanity, needs to confine itself to Nature and Nature's Laws, proving by virtue of corresponding relation between the objects of life the Manifestation of Variety as a means to an end, considering the Processes of Creation and Evolution as ever changing but never ending

d) Sociology is to meet the requirements of time, showing by means of self-respect, right conduct, behaviour and the exercise of individual rights, the possibility of union and harmony in the blending of individual complexity unto altruistic collectivity, recognizing perfection in every sphere, phase and place, for the final redemption of man from the dual aspect of life lost in class-consciousness.

13 Mazdaznan declares that The greater the variety of ideas, and the farther-reaching the complexity of Thought entertained, the grander the sublimity of the forthcoming of the Divine Individuality in Man.

14 Mazdaznan declares that the Principle of Life contains the Solution as to the Problems of Life, and that the recognition of it corresponds with the degree of one's unfoldment and the application of one's attributes, in the results whereof no one but the individual poses as the principal factor

15 Mazdaznan declares that the Systems of Religion, philosophy, science and sociology are but means to an end and not the end of man's endeavour. Purcly means to aid the invalid mind to gain a foretaste of Truth and to stimulate the Thought unto efforts leading to an understanding of the Truth, which Truth is Holier than the Holiest, and is latent in every individual, ready to be expressed through the collective state according to governing conditions

16 Mazdaznan is the Thought of Masters and the Master-Thought that masters all the things of destiny for our good here, now and forever.

17 Mazdaznan is a Message unto all mankind, irrespective as to creed, caste or colour, declaring the "Peace that surpasseth all understanding" and removes all misunderstanding.

18 Mazdaznan declares that in the recognition of Our Being not our denials alone, but the recognition and confession of the conditions and the environments, accumulated by ignorance through the process of Creation and Evolution, will deliver us from bondage and unfold the golden rays of higher understanding.

19 Mazdaznan declares that man's entity is the Focalization of God's intelligence manifesting attributes of spirit, soul and mind, and recognizes in the body of man the Crystallization of substance, guided through uncountable processes of creations and evolutions, passing through the lower strata of matter as revealed in the elementary, mineral, vegetable and animal kingdoms, and lastly that of the form of man; the culminating point of all the intelligences and energies, celestial and terrestrial.

20 Mazdaznan declares that the key unto Wisdom lies in the Power of Breath obtained through diligent and religious practices of rhythmic Prayers and Songs on the breath, and the application of a scientific Faith which comes to us through the exercise of our talents, gifts, endowments and attributes in our daily walks of life, and our ability to cope with the demands of our time, which alone leads unto the solution of the most perplexing problems of life.

21 Mazdaznan declares with the thought of Our Blessed Ainyahita that each consecutive generation is the culmination not only of the preceding one as to matter and mind relative to lineage, recognizing in each and every man all the accomplishments of all the minds of man of preceding existences, and all ancestry since the world began, but, furthermore, takes for granted that the spirit of the fathers lives in their children as declared by Zarathushtra, having absolute faith in Jesus, who declared, that "even greater things than these ye shall do," and concludes that each and every man possesses the qualities, properties and propensities, physical, mental, spiritual and divine, of all the generations past, and that each man is the re-incarnation of all preceding accomplishments and attainments, simply awaiting opportunities suitable unto the application of these hidden talents. To enable man to redeem the qualities of past thought, framing them into manifestations of newer thought, Mazdaznan proposes the Only Infallible Plan of Salvation, assuring final redemption, and with it the realization of a perfect life here, now and forever.

22 Mazdaznan declares that the Infallible Plan of Salvation lies in the Application of Means of Purification leading unto Regeneration, with the first step essential unto Salvation from Ancestral Ties through the efficacy of rhythmic Prayers and Songs breathed on the breath, the utterance of language whereof, guided by Thought, imparts Freedom to the dynamics of life, assuring more perfect and harmonious operations throughout the body and its corresponding factors, quickening the latent forces to renewed action, effecting restoration; filling the heretofore unclaimed tissues and energies with Galama, the centralizing Life principle, which when retained through increased organic operations induces a higher rate of consciousness and with it brings about the immaculate conception of man born again, and born of the spirit.

23 Mazdaznan declares its System of Breathing to be based on thoroughly tested and proven scientific principles, borne out by scriptural records, and recognized by the world's greatest scholars and most eminent scientists as the only inimitable Institution embodying the infallible methods of Nature as revealed to the intelligence of man through comparative reasoning and untiring observation. Keeping abreast with the Spirit of the Times, Mazdaznan remains conscious of its monism, unitism, dualism, trinitism, panism and polyism, as revealed in the macrocosm and microcosm of the Infinite and Finite, complexedly ever blending but never ending.

24 Mazdaznan declares absolute eradication from sickness, sin and sorrow, assuring freedom from all bondage, through diligent practice of Science and Faith

25 Mazdaznan declares that the lower walks of life are repetitions of past incarnations called into existence through processes of re-incarnation and transmigration prompted by pre-natal influence and inherited tendencies which in man constitute the cause for contention and struggle, thereby retarding progression

26 Mazdaznan declares light upon all subjects, whatever their nature, and gives them due consideration in a spirit of kindness and toleration, paying respect to all ideas, views, opinions and statements

27 Mazdaznan declares that all life is eternal, without beginning or end thereof, the knowledge of one's self insuring confidence, assurance and the substance of things which is Faith, for "This is Life Eternal—to know God;" "Wherefore be ye perfect like your father in heaven is perfect," for "Know ye not that the kingdom of heaven is within you?"

28 Mazdaznan declares that in this world of manifestation there are no two things exactly alike, nor can two things occupy the same space or place at the same time; consequently variation in ideas will forever characterize the individual here on Earth as well as throughout the abounding Space.

29 Mazdaznan declares through this most glorious Message of Peace and Liberty showers of blessings unto Prosperity and Perfection to whosoever will come and take of the flow of life freely, the divine flow that quickens the spirit and refreshes the soul unto a life worth living.

30 Mazdaznan points to no authority or authoritative institution other than the Supreme as the highest ideal in conscious manifestation, and declares that all ideas are sacred to the individual who proves and perpetuates them by a life most simple and exemplary.

31 Mazdaznan recognizes in their proper place all records, scriptures and books, knowing them all to be an answer to the demands made by inquiring minds, but for its own guide of infallibility accepts none other than the Open Book of Nature, recognizing the latter as an instrument supplying the wants of immediate demands, the interpretation whereof is sacred to every individual as a divine right.

32 Mazdaznan declares that the Infinite will not manifest in unclean tabernacles, and that we owe it to ourselves and the race to remain unspotted before the world, show forth pure and healthy bodies, noble and truthful characters, commanding respect from all and by all, for "Know ye not that your body is the Temple of the Living God?"

33 Mazdaznan declares in accordance with the testimony of Saviours, Saints and Sages. That "Verily, even in this flesh thou shalt see God," who will come "to His Temple not made by hands," but "in His expressed image," and That the body of man is the highest ideal of God and the culmination of processes creative and evolutionary, with the end in view of becoming an honour for eternity.

34 Mazdaznan recognizes goodness, beauty, character and sublimity in everything confined to its own sphere, and sees, like unto a mirror, the manifestations of all things not only within their spheres, but also beyond them, recognizing in the things outside of one's self reflective expressions serving as a memorandum for our good, and as an incentive unto higher aspirations yet to be attained.

35 Mazdaznan recognizes in the Holy Family of Father, Mother and Child, the Principle of God incarnate, expressing Unity through Divine Trinity, forever revealing the Duality of Creation, assuring perpetuity unto higher Perfection through conscious bonds of Procreation, which alone proves perfect Union.

36 Mazdaznan enables man through its inimitable teachings to conquer all pre-natal influences and earthbound ties of ancestry, redeeming mankind from sickness, sin and sorrow, and thus saving man from blind egoism and narrow selfishness, contributing to Society one more member enlightened with the spirit of altruism and broadness of mind, serving humanity by exemplification of true character, on which the ultimate salvation of society and the redemption of the race depends.

37 Mazdaznan is the new name spoken of by the prophets, poets and saviours, revealing the designs of the spirit of the times.

38 Mazdaznan shall the password be in all walks of life, revealing firmness of mind and happiness through perfect health, assuring the treasures of wealth that forever flow from out the horn of plenty before the feet of the children of men as their blessing and birthright by virtue of their relationship unto God, with whom all creation is at one, even as "I and the Father are at one."

39 Mazdaznan needs not proselyte nor seek to gain adherents to its teachings, recognizing the principle of demand and supply as to time and condition to be in correspondence with cause and effect.

40 Mazdaznan invites all mankind to its most glorious Message and Gospel of Peace, Liberty and Individual Rights without money or price, imparting its ways and means unto Science and Faith free from obligations, leaving it to its adherents to voluntarily perform their part.

41 Mazdaznan proclaims and sounds its Infinite Message to the honest in heart and asks them to come and prove for themselves that the hour has come for truth to be revealed, demonstrating perfect manhood and noble womanhood.

42 Mazdaznan asks of the Redeemed and Reclaimed to declare the Message of Peace and gather the elect from the four corners of the Earth, declaring Hope and Good Cheer with Blessings of all Good Things unto all the world.

43 Mazdaznan beseeches the Awakened to proclaim the Word of Promise on all occasions, and furthermore demands of the world to live up to its confessions, irrespective of creed, caste or colour.

44 Mazdaznan invites investigation, demands demonstration, and asks for abilities as well as possibilities, to which there is no end, reminding one another that the greatest lesson in life to learn, and the grandest achievement possible, lies in the realization of the maxim of Ainyahita :

*Stand alone and mind thy own,
That alone shall sin atone.*

45 Mazdaznan places no restriction upon its associates, but assures perfect freedom guided by reason, consideration, logic, discrimination, judging all things from cause to effect and the manifold attributes of the mind, soul and spirit.

46 Mazdaznan declares that a nation cannot rise above the level of the woman, and for this reason places its hope for the realization of the millennial age in the education of women, that by virtue of the control of maternal laws the latent forces of the life to be incarnated may reveal the Coming Race, and through the unrestricted application of the Power of Thought give Saviours of Liberty unto the world, making our land the Saviour Nation of the earth and thus through the Ascendency of the Transparent Race redeem all mankind from the influences of superstition, ignorance, witchcraft and the hypnotic spells of past antiquity.

47 Mazdaznan assures through its practices true individualism that leads to practical collectivism, rebuilding the old society from out of its chaotic state unto the formation of a New Order of Things in the Society of Man, thus realizing that "the old has passed away; behold I shall make all things new."

48 Mazdaznan is Royal in Principle, consequently making its adherents non-obligatory, and Democratic in Application, thus voluntarily serving God and Man.

Mazdaznan Statement

Mazdaznan Statement

I am a Mazdaznan, and herewith make my statement according to the only infallible, inspired, divine and revealed religion.

That there is no authority greater than God and no religion higher than Truth.

I must obey God more than man

I must love the Lord my God with all my heart, my mind, my strength and all that is within me.

I must love my neighbour as my own.

I must hold to the covenant that I am here upon this earth to reclaim the earth, to turn the deserts into a paradise, a paradise most suitable unto God and His Associates to dwell therein.

I must be loyal in principle and democratic in application.

I must never cause an infliction, death or injury to any flesh or blood, be it animal or man

I must not partake of animal flesh, blood or fats during times of prosperity, neither resort to it in case of famine or torture to save myself from starvation; for he who clings to life shall lose it.

I must never raise my hand, or a weapon of any kind, against my brother, a friend or foe, for all they that take the sword shall perish by it.

I must never engage in any business or profession calculated to inflict injury, or the destruction of life and property

I must declare and make peace with an adversary quickly through non-resistance and by arbitration.

I must never go before courts with any grievance whatsoever, and when forced into it by an adversary, leave it all to the course of providence, destiny and fate.

I must live in peace under the most adverse conditions, and ever remember that it is by far more wholesome and profitable to feed the enemy than to fight him.

I must never enter into dispute, debate, discussion or argument about creed, belief, customs or theories, for argument is death unto the voice of truth.

I must never seek revenge, for "vengeance is mine," saith the Lord, "I will repay."

I must not engage in usury, hut in its stead divide profits equally.

I must not take advantage of a brother, neither be partial to a stranger, and remunerate every man according to the value of his hire.

I must promote and assist in the promotion of final emancipation of all mankind through the application of ingenuity, invention and industry, ever engaging in means of direct conformity with every religion and its divine tenets.

I must assist the needy, the afflicted, the distressed, the fallen, the neglected, the struggling, the perishing, and do so in a spirit of love, kindness and respect, bearing in mind that charity begins at home.

I must be honest, true, pure, chaste, truthful and industrious, applying my gifts, talents and attributes, endowments, propensities and properties into constructive pursuits that the kingdom of heaven may be realized on this earth.

I must keep within the boundary lines of the dictates of my own conscience, and serve my God by keeping every one of His commandments, and rather seal the testimony of the Saviour with the loss of my terrestrial life than to turn traitor to the Kingdom of God.
